Project Description

Principal's Priority

2

East would like $5000 to purchase resources for our library collection to increase access for our large and diverse student population. Purchase English to foreign language dictionaries, books covering the many cultures at East, High interest low vocabulary books, replacement copies of appropriate materials.

Benefits if Project is Funded

East's new to English students would have increase access to appropriate English to their first language dictionaries to complete assignments and increase understanding.

East's Library could build a collection of high interest low vocabulary books for our many readers who are new to the English language.

East's Library would be able to replace the many items lost due to homelessness and home transitions. East has the highest number of children who are homeless or are in transition.

Impacts if Project is not Funded

Resources would eventually be purchased form library's annual budget. However, it will take many more years to provide the best access to students.
